

The Glasgow Perthshire Charitable Society

About The Glasgow Perthshire

About The Glasgow Perthshire

The Glasgow Perthshire Charitable Society, generally referred to today as "The Glasgow Perthshire", was founded in 1835 and is one of the oldest charities in Scotland still in existence. The Society's original aim was to provide financial assistance to those from Perthshire who had moved to Glasgow seeking employment and had fallen on hard times. Today, the Society primarily provides bursaries to students from Perthshire attending one of Glasgow's universities or higher education institutions, but may also provide assistance to individuals from Perthshire who live in Glasgow.

Board of Directors

The Board consists of three office bearers and several directors:

Preses: Russell L. Crichton

Secretary: Neil C. M. Menzies

Treasurer: Russell L. Crichton

Directors: Alastair F. Brown, Mhara M. Brown, Jonathan P. Crichton, Russell L. Crichton, Andrew McCaig, Neil C. M. Menzies, Peter A. G. Menzies

Further Information

Further information about the Society and its work, including details of student bursaries and how to apply for them, can be found on the Society web site:

<https://www.glasgow-perthshire.dyndns.org/>

Enquiries

Enquiries about bursaries or other society-related enquiries, which are not answered on the web site, can be made via the appropriate form on the "Contact Us" page on the web site:

<https://www.glasgow-perthshire.dyndns.org/contact-us>

Updated August 2025

The
Glasgow
Perthshire
Charitable
Society